What are the key risks that are specific to the Issuer?

The Issuer is subject to the following key risks:

Macroeconomic, Geopolitical and Market Environment: Deutsche Bank is materially affected by global macroeconomic and market conditions. Significant challenges may arise from persistent inflation, higher interest rates for longer, potential for widespread trade tariffs, market volatility, and a deteriorating macroeconomic environment. These risks could negatively affect the business environment, leading to weaker economic activity and a broader correction in the financial markets. Materialization of these risks could negatively affect Deutsche Bank's results of operations and financial condition as well as Deutsche Bank's ability to meet its financial targets. Deutsche Bank take steps to manage these risks through its risk management and hedging activities but remains exposed to these macroeconomic and market risks.

Strategy and Business: If Deutsche Bank is unable to meet its financial targets or incurs future losses or low profitability, Deutsche Bank's financial condition, results of operations and share price may be materially and adversely affected, and Deutsche Bank may be unable to make contemplated distributions or share buybacks.

Regulation and Supervision: Prudential reforms and heightened regulatory scrutiny affecting the financial sector continue to have a significant impact on Deutsche Bank, which may adversely affect its business and, in cases of non-compliance, could lead to regulatory sanctions against Deutsche Bank, including prohibitions against Deutsche Bank making dividend payments, share repurchases or payments on its regulatory capital instruments, or increasing regulatory capital and liquidity requirements.

Internal Control Environment: A robust and effective internal control environment and adequate infrastructure (comprising people, policies and procedures, controls testing and IT systems) are necessary to enable Deutsche Bank to conduct its business in compliance with the laws, regulations and associated supervisory expectations applicable to Deutsche Bank. Deutsche Bank has identified the need to strengthen its internal control environment and infrastructure and has been required to do so in certain areas by its regulators. Deutsche Bank has undertaken initiatives to accomplish this. If these initiatives are not successful or proceed too slowly, Deutsche Bank's reputation, regulatory position and financial condition may be materially adversely affected, and its ability to achieve Deutsche Bank's strategic ambitions may be impaired.

Technology, Data and Innovation: Digital innovation may offer market entry opportunities for new competitors such as cross-industry entrants, global tech companies and financial technology companies. Therefore, Deutsche Bank expects its businesses to have an increased need for investments in digital products and process resources to remain competitive and protect Deutsche Bank from security threats. If the above investments are not made, there is a risk Deutsche Bank could lose market share, which could have a material adverse effect on its financial results.

Litigation, Regulatory Enforcement Matters and Investigations: Deutsche Bank operates in a highly and increasingly regulated and litigious environment, potentially exposing Deutsche Bank to liability and other costs, the amounts of which may be substantial and difficult to estimate, as well as to legal and regulatory sanctions and reputational harm.

Climate Change and Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG)-Related Matters: The impacts of rising global temperatures and the associated policy, technology and behavioural changes required to limit global warming to no greater than 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels have led to emerging sources of financial and non-financial risks. These include the physical risk impacts from extreme weather events and transition risks as carbon-intensive sectors are faced with higher costs, potentially reduced demand and restricted access to financing. More rapid than currently expected emergence of transition and/or physical climate risks and other environmental risks may lead to increased credit and market losses as well as operational disruptions due to impacts on vendors and Deutsche Bank's own operations.

Other Risks: Deutsche Bank's risk management policies, procedures and methods leave Deutsche Bank exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks, which could lead to material losses.

KEY INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

What are the main features of the Securities?

Type, class and ISIN

The Securities are English law governed Certificates.

The Securities will be issued in bearer form and represented by a global security.
ISIN: XS3199019228

Currency, denomination, par value, number of securities issued and duration

The specified currency of the Securities is Euro ("EUR" and the "Specified Currency"). The number of the Securities issued is up to 5,000 and the issue price is EUR 10,000 per Security (the "Issue Price").

Issue Date: 28 January 2026

Redemption Date: 24 June 2031

Rights attached to the Securities

The Securities are linked to the creditworthiness of Repsol SA (the "Reference Entity").

In the event that the Reference Entity transfers all or a portion of its obligations to one or more other entities, those entities may be determined to be successors to the Reference Entity. In such circumstances, the terms of the Securities provide that such successor entity (or entities) may replace the Reference Entity for the purposes of the Securities.

Coupon

Subject as provided below, if no Credit Event (as described in more detail below) has occurred during the Credit Exposure Period, on each Coupon Payment Date each holder of a Security (a "Securityholder") shall receive a coupon amount in the Specified Currency equal to the product of (1) the Reference Amount and (2) the Coupon Rate and by then applying the Day Count Fraction to adjust this amount to reflect the length of the relevant Coupon Period. If a Credit Event does occur with respect to the Reference Entity during the Credit Exposure Period, no coupon amount will be payable in respect of any Coupon Payment Date falling on or after the occurrence of the Credit Event. If, in respect of any Coupon Payment Date, the determination is outstanding on whether a Credit Event has occurred, the payment of the relevant coupon amount due to be paid on such Coupon Payment Date may be postponed. If any coupon amount payments are postponed, a Securityholder will not receive any coupon amount or other payments to compensate for such postponement.

Credit Event: The occurrence of a "Credit Event" will be determined by a CDDC, or, in the absence of a determination by the CDDC, by the Calculation Agent, based on the rules for credit derivatives prepared and published by ISDA. A Credit Event may be determined to have occurred if any of the following occurs:

- Bankruptcy, where the Reference Entity experiences insolvency, bankruptcy or related events.
- Failure to Pay, where the Reference Entity fails to make payments due on its debt above a prescribed threshold.

- Restructuring, where the Reference Entity's debt is restructured on terms that are detrimental to the holder(s) of the relevant debt in a form that is binding on all holders.

Final Redemption

If a Credit Event has not occurred during the Credit Exposure Period, a holder of the Securities will receive on the Redemption Date a redemption amount in the Specified Currency equal to the Reference Amount.

If, in respect of the Redemption Date, the determination is outstanding on whether a Credit Event has occurred, the payment of the redemption amount (if any) may be postponed. If the redemption amount is postponed, a Securityholder will not receive any interest or other payments to compensate for such postponement unless no Credit Event has occurred in which case interest at an overnight deposit rate will be payable in respect of the postponed payment of the redemption amount.

Early Redemption

Early redemption following the occurrence of a Credit Event

If a Credit Event has occurred with respect to the Reference Entity during the Credit Exposure Period, a holder of the Securities will receive on the Credit Event Redemption Date an amount in the Specified Currency equal to the product of (i) the Reference Amount and (ii) the Settlement Price (as described in more detail below). This amount is likely to be less than the Reference Amount (and in some cases may be zero) and, therefore, a Securityholder is likely to suffer a loss of a substantial portion, and possibly all, of their investment in such circumstances.

Settlement Price: The "Settlement Price" is determined based on the price of certain obligations of the Reference Entity of the relevant seniority following the occurrence of the relevant Credit Event. The Settlement Price will be determined, either:

- (i) through a standardised auction process, organised by a CDDC. The auction will involve a bidding process by institutions participating in the relevant auction pursuant to a bidding procedure set by ISDA, to establish the value of certain eligible obligations of the Reference Entity which may include bonds, loans and guarantees. The outcome of any auction is likely to reflect the prevailing price of the cheapest relevant obligation(s) of the Reference Entity, or
- (ii) where a relevant auction does not happen, by the Calculation Agent manually seeking quotes from market dealers to determine a "final price" for the relevant obligation(s).

As such, the amount a Securityholder shall receive upon early redemption of the Securities following the occurrence of a Credit Event takes into account the percentage reduction in the price of the Reference Entity's obligations of the relevant seniority following the occurrence of the relevant Credit Event.

Early redemption following the occurrence of an Event of Default

The occurrence of any of the following events with respect to the Issuer shall constitute an "Event of Default": (i) the Issuer fails to pay principal or interest within in respect of the Securities 30 calendar days of the relevant due date; (ii) the Issuer fails duly to perform any other obligation arising from the Securities, if such failure continues for more than 60 days after the Issuer has received notice thereof from a Securityholder; (iii) the Issuer announces its inability to meet its financial obligations or ceases its payments; or (iv) a court in Germany opens insolvency proceedings against the Issuer.

A Security may be redeemed early by the relevant Securityholder following an Event of Default. In such circumstances, the amount payable to Securityholders will be an amount (which may never be less than zero) calculated by the Calculation Agent, in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, equal to the fair market value of the Securities held by the relevant Securityholder, together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the day the relevant Event of Default occurred. For the purposes of determining the fair market value, no account shall be taken of the financial condition of the Issuer, which shall be presumed to be able to perform fully its obligations in respect of the Securities.

Early redemption for illegality or force majeure

If the Issuer determines that, for reasons beyond its control:

- (i) an event or circumstance (other than any action taken by the Issuer) occurs after the Issue Date of the Securities as a result of which it becomes unlawful under any applicable law (including without limitation the laws of any country in which payment, delivery or compliance is required by the Issuer), on any day, or it would be unlawful if the relevant payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day, for the Issuer to (a) make or receive payments or deliveries, (b) perform any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery, (c) receive a payment or delivery or (d) comply with any other material provision; or
- (ii) a force majeure or act of state occurs after the Issue Date of the Securities, and the Issuer cannot, using all reasonable efforts (which will not require the Issuer to incur a loss, other than immaterial, incidental expenses), overcome such prevention, impossibility or impracticability in respect of the Securities and either (a) the Issuer is prevented from performing any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery, from receiving a payment or delivery, or from complying with any other material provision (or would be so prevented if such payment, delivery or compliance were required on that day) or (b) it becomes impossible or impracticable for the Issuer to perform any absolute or contingent obligation to make a payment or delivery, to receive a payment or delivery, or to comply with any other material provision, the Issuer may, at its discretion and without obligation, terminate the Securities early. If the Issuer redeems the Securities early, the Issuer will pay the holder of each such Security an amount determined by the Calculation Agent, acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, to be its fair market value notwithstanding the illegality or impracticability, together with any coupon amount accrued.

Early redemption for a Merger Event

The Securities may be redeemed early if the Issuer consolidates, amalgamates with, or merges into, or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to, the Reference Entity or vice versa, or the Issuer and the Reference Entity become affiliates. In such circumstances, each Security may be redeemed by the Issuer at an amount equal to the Reference Amount, together with any coupon amount accrued.

Issuer right to redeem Securities

The Issuer has an early redemption option and therefore has the right, on giving not less than a specified period of notice to Securityholders, as applicable, to redeem all outstanding Securities on any Issuer Early Redemption Date at a Redemption Amount equal to the Reference Amount (as applicable), together in each case with any Coupon Amount accrued as provided in the Product Conditions. The early redemption of the Securities in such circumstances may result in the Securityholders receiving less than their expected return if the Securities had been redeemed as their scheduled redemption.

Taxation

All payments or, as the case may be, deliveries in respect of the Securities will be subject in all cases to all applicable fiscal and other laws and regulations (including, where applicable, laws requiring the deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any tax, duty or other charge whatsoever). The Issuer shall have the right, but shall not be obliged, to withhold or deduct from any amount payable or, as the case may be, any delivery due to the Securityholder, such amount or portion as shall be necessary to account for or to pay any such tax, duty, charge, withholding or other amount.

Governing Law:

The Securities will be governed by English law.

In accordance with § 46f(5) of the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz, “KWG”), the obligations under the Securities rank in priority of those under debt instruments of the Issuer within the meaning of Section 46f(6) sentence 1 KWG (also in conjunction with § 46f(9) KWG) or any successor provision, including eligible liabilities within the meaning of Articles 72a and 72b(2) of The Capital Requirements Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013.

Restrictions on free transferability of the Securities

The Securities are freely transferable subject to any applicable law, any rules and procedures for the time being of any clearing system through whose books the Securities are transferred and the restrictions below.

The Securities, or any interests therein, may not be offered or sold except to, or for the account or benefit of, non-U.S. persons located outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (as amended). Furthermore, the Securities are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom.

Where will the Securities be traded?

Application will be made for the Securities to be admitted to trading on EuroTLX Market of Borsa Italiana S.p.A., which is not a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instrument Directive (Directive 2014/65/EU, as amended, “MiFID II”).

What are the key risks that are specific to the Securities?

- An investment in the Securities bears the risk that the Issuer is not able to fulfil its obligations created by the Securities on the relevant due date. If this happens investors may lose some or all of their investment in the Securities. If a bankruptcy proceeding is commenced with respect to the Issuer, the return to an investor in the Securities may be limited and any recovery will likely be substantially delayed. Thus Securityholders may lose all or part of their investment.

- The occurrence of a Credit Event and the designation of an event determination date may result in a Securityholder losing some, and potentially all, of its initial investment.
- A Security does not represent a claim against the Reference Entity or in respect of any obligation of the Reference Entity and a Securityholder will not have recourse under a Security to the Reference Entity.
- The creditworthiness of the Reference Entity as at the Issue Date or the time of purchase of the Securities is not an indication of the likelihood of a Credit Event occurring in the future. A deterioration in the creditworthiness of the Reference Entity as will negatively affect the trading price of the Securities, and it is impossible to predict whether the creditworthiness of the Reference Entity will improve or deteriorate.
- Any coupon amount payable in respect of the Securities throughout their life is credit-linked to the Reference Entity and accordingly is dependent on, amongst other things, the creditworthiness of the Reference Entity. In a worst case scenario, if an event determination date has occurred prior to the first Coupon Payment Date, no coupon amount will be payable in respect of the Securities.
- The coupon amount payable in respect of the Securities is calculated by reference to the Coupon Rate, which is a fixed rate. Prospective investors should be aware that the Coupon Rate will remain fixed and may be less than prevailing interest rates and the prevailing costs of borrowing.
- If the Issuer determines that an illegality event or force majeure event has occurred in respect of the Securities, the Issuer may, at its discretion and without obligation, terminate the Securities early. If the Issuer redeems the Securities early, the amount payable by the Issuer to each Securityholder may be less than the amount that would have been payable if the Securities had redeemed at their scheduled redemption.
- In performing its role under the Securities, the Calculation Agent does not act on behalf of, or accept any duty of care or any fiduciary duty to any Securityholder or any other person. The Calculation Agent will pursue actions and take steps that it deems necessary or appropriate to protect its interests without regard to the consequences for Securityholders. In limited cases, the Calculation Agent shall act in its sole discretion in carrying out calculations and determinations with respect to the Securities and, in such cases, will act in the interests of the Issuer and not in the interests of the Securityholders.
- It is not possible to predict if and to what extent a secondary market may develop in the Securities or at what price the Securities will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid or illiquid. The fact that the Securities may be admitted to trading on the EuroTLX Market of Borsa Italiana S.p.A., does not necessarily lead to greater liquidity than if they were not so admitted. The liquidity of the Securities may also be affected by restrictions on offers and sales of the Securities in some jurisdictions.
